Weekly Update

JUNE 1, 2018

Rehab Department benefits from Shriners donation

Equipment purchased through a grant from the Hocking Hills Shrine Club has been put to good use in the Hocking Valley Community Hospital Department of Rehabilitation.

Staff have been using the equipment for pediatric patients for the past several weeks. Equipment that was purchased with the $13,260 donation includes:

- EasyStand StrapStand: Helps patients more easily stand during treatment without harm or injury to the therapist or patient.
- Hi Lo Tables: Tables have the ability to be lowered to a level of two feet and raised as high as four feet. The flexibility to adjust levels provides significantly easier access to patients of various sizes and physical limitations getting on and off the treatment table safely. It also allows the therapist to raise the patient to a height that is better for treatment necessary for the patient.

- Iowa Oral Performance Instrument: The device is used to measure a patient's tongue strength, giving a base line measurement during initial evaluation, determining if decreased tongue strength is cause for the patient's difficulty swallowing and or speaking.

The Shriners have been in establishment since 1870, and are known for their support in caring for pediatric patients who have experienced orthopedic conditions, burns, spinal cord injuries and cleft lip and palate. HVCH thanks them for their continued support of the hospital.

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"When everything seems to be going against you, remember that the airplane takes off against the wind, not with it."
—Henry Ford

Direct to You: From Julie Stuck, CEO

Over the past several weeks I have been silently celebrating (well, maybe not silently) many “lasts” - the last Joint Commission Survey, the last meeting, the last construction project, the last set of minutes to review, and looking forward to many “firsts.” I will however, never forget my first day as CEO.

Julie Stuck, CEO

I was in a meeting when the phone rang and the person on the other line said “I think you should get back here to the OR.” What a sight to behold when I arrived. The OR was flooding due to a ceiling fire extinguisher rupture. I learned a lot that day; the pounds per square inch of water pressure, no one can turn off a fire alarm but the fire department, the sound of the rushing water actually sounds like a water fall, and having great insurance coverage is a blessing.

But the most important thing I learned that day was different from all of that. Different in the fact that everyone during that catastrophe was working to mitigate the damage that was being done by the flood. There were OR staff, housekeeping, plant operations, IT staff, and nursing, just about every individual who was not taking care of patients was back in the OR working. There wasn't a soul there just looking at the unusual sight - they all were there drying off equipment and moving it out of the way, mopping floors and doing anything they could to help. It was a demonstration of the essence of teamwork. That day I witnessed the true heart of HVCH.

As I write my “last” article for the weekly update, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to each of you for your teamwork, your heart, and the devotion you demonstrate everyday to our patients. There have been many accomplishments that we have shared together and I will forever be grateful for the opportunity I have been given to be a leader of this organization. I will never forget the trust and support you all have given me.

All my Best,
Julie

June is Hernia Awareness Month

June 1-30 is hernia awareness month. Each year almost 750,000 Americans are treated for hernias, yet some experts believe hundreds of thousands suffer in silence because of fear of surgery.

What is a Hernia?

A hernia occurs when parts of an organ (usually the intestines) protrudes through a weak point or tear in the thin muscular wall that holds the abdominal organs in place. People at risk of developing a hernia are typically those performing chronic lifting or activities that require straining, which increases intra-abdominal pressure. However, the various types of hernias can occur in both males and females of any age.

Signs and Symptoms

Most people with hernias have a common set of signs and symptoms. A bulge is the most typical sign of a hernia. Hernias can cause discomfort or pain during your daily activities—especially when you exert yourself. They can also cause discomfort or pain during urination or bowel movements and a feeling of weakness or pressure in the groin area.

Patients should seek medical help if a hernia is suspected and should seek further evaluation by a medical professional—especially when pain or discomfort persists.

Did you know that if your physician recommends surgery to treat your hernia, you can have that done right here in Logan at HVCH? Completing your surgery and receiving treatment here, allows you to develop a long lasting and continual relationship with your medical team within your own community.

Our general surgeons Dr. Michael Tornwall and Dr. Timothy O'Brien are just a phone call away! They can be reached at (740) 380-1300.
